

Policies and Procedures of the National Leather Alliance –Dallas

SECTION I. ELECTIONS

1. Nominations
 - 1.1. Members may self-nominate or accept a nomination from another member.
 - 1.2. Nominations may be made in person during General Meetings and will be recorded in the minutes.
 - 1.3. Nominations may be submitted by written notice to a Co-Chair or the Secretary at their email addresses provided on the NLA-Dallas website.
 - 1.4. Nominations will be closed at 9:00 p.m. the Tuesday immediately preceding the election.
 - 1.5. By 9:00 p.m. the Friday immediately preceding the elections, all nominees must have submitted a brief biography for publication to the Members' email list. Failure to do so will forfeit nomination. This submission shall include a declaration of any of the following relationships with a current Member of the Executive Committee or another nominee:
 - 1.5.1. Partnerships or other domestic situations or living arrangements
 - 1.5.2. Familial relationship including biological, legal, and/or Leather families
 - 1.5.3. Sexual relationships
 - 1.5.4. Power exchange relationships
 - 1.5.5. Leather Club memberships
 - 1.5.6. Financial or business relationships
2. Elections will be held at General Meetings in accordance with Section IV of the Bylaws. When possible, elections will be placed early in the meeting agenda.
3. The annual elections and all contested elections for office will be conducted by secret ballot.
4. Ballots will be provided individually to Members upon verifying their Membership is current by:
 - 4.1. Verification of current Membership by the Membership Director or a Co-Chair
5. The Executive Committee will choose one Member of the Executive Committee not running in the election and one Member not on the Executive Committee to tally ballots. Each will individually calculate totals which will then be compared for agreement. If needed, recounts will continue until the individual totals agree. Upon agreement of the totals, the Sergeant at Arms or other NLA Dallas member decided by the Executive Committee will certify the election.
6. Upon certification of the election, the total number of ballots cast and the winner(s) will be announced. The individual tally will not be announced.
7. For all elected positions except the Members at Large, if a majority vote is not cast for a single candidate in a contested election, the two candidates receiving the most votes will immediately hold a run-off election.
8. Members at Large running en masse in the Annual Elections are elected by plurality voting as provided for in the Bylaws. Those candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes will be declared the winners. Ballots indicating votes cast for fewer candidates than are running will not be declared invalid or an abstention but will be counted in favor of the candidates indicated on the ballot, however, only one vote per candidate will be counted on a single ballot. In the event there is a tie, a run-off election will be held as needed to determine the winning candidates. When a special election is held for a Member at Large position, a majority is required to determine the winner.

9. Change over meeting will be held prior to the June Executive Committee meeting. Both the outgoing Executive Committee and newly appointed / elected Executive Committee members shall attend. At this meeting all materials relating to a changeover position will be turned over to the incoming Chair or Director.

SECTION II. FINANCIALS

1. Any Member may request an opportunity to inspect the financial record.
 - 1.1. The request needs to be in writing and will be honored within 30 days
 - 1.2. The Treasurer will honor request and remove any sensitive, personal information as defined by state and federal law.
2. Each year, after the Executive Committee Changeover Meeting, the financial records shall be reviewed by a committee appointed by the Executive Committee, to include the Senior Co-Chair, one Executive Committee member and two General members. The results of this review will be reported at the September General Meeting.
3. Credit Card readers will be distributed at the discretion of the Treasurer and Co-chairs.
4. Passwords to the various financial accounts will be changed at the rotation of elected / appointed incoming Executive Committee members.
5. Any funds collected on behalf of NLA-Dallas for any reason shall be remitted to the Treasurer or one of the Co-Chairs within seven (7) days for deposit.
6. Any member of the Executive Committee with access to a debit card must report all transactions to the Treasurer within seven (7) days, prior if possible, a scanned copy that is then emailed is preferable if the full receipt is included in the scan.
